

Women & More

The Noble Name

5 April 2012

As members of the family of God, we must “maintain the family honor”—hold in highest esteem the noble Name of God the Father, His Son: the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit. We do not honor the gospel of a system, but of a Person—three in one!

*“For the sake of his great name
the Lord will not reject his people, because the Lord was pleased to make you his own.”*

1 Samuel 12:22

Be not ashamed to bow your knees where others can see you.
Be not ashamed to sing his praise where others can hear you.
There is nothing that can become you so much as to speak well of your heavenly Father.
Henry van Dyke

Many Christians who pray “Our Father” on Sunday act like orphans the rest of the week.

NOTES on Speaking Session:

Questions for Mentor-group Discussion:

1. One of the Ten Commandments tells us how not to treat the Name of the Lord our God. Write out that command (Exodus 20:7).

You shall not

2. Since a commandment only partially done is not counted at all, what do you think misuse of God's Name would include...besides swearing?
