

Women & More
A 'call' and 'walk' Experience

Giving and Getting Forgiveness

Worksheet 3: September 17, 2015—grace

We must 'have' something ourselves in order to give it away. If we have received the atoning death of Jesus Christ as payment for our sins, and thereby been forgiven, then we have forgiveness to extend to others—Scripture commands it. We may never be able to forget an offense—like God does—but we can stop rehearsing it!

“Forgiveness is a beautiful word, until you have something to forgive.”

—C. S. Lewis

“The main reason most people feel guilty, is because they are guilty.
While repentance and remorse are necessary to receive forgiveness,
they are not prerequisites for granting forgiveness.

♥
Forgiveness is the obligation of the forgiven!”

—Robert Jeffress

Prepare by Soaking in Scripture:

Psalm 32:5

Luke 17:3-4 (in parenthesis place sister, her or she after every brother, him and he)

2 Corinthians 5:17-19

James 5:16

Scripture to Memorize:

Ephesians 4:32 “Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.”

“Amy stirred, and sighed in her sleep; and, as if eager to begin at once to mend her fault, Jo looked up with an expression on her face which it had never worn before.

““I let the sun go down on my anger; I wouldn’t forgive her, and today, if it hadn’t been for Laurie, it might have been too late! How could I be so wicked?” said Jo, half aloud, as she leaned over her sister, softly stroking the wet hair scattered on the pillow.

“As if she heard, Amy opened her eyes, and held out her arms, with a smile that went straight to Jo’s heart. Neither said a word, but they hugged one another close, in spite of the blankets, and everything was forgiven and forgotten in one hearty kiss.”

From Little Women,
—by Louisa May Alcott

JUDGMENT DAY

“After living what I felt was a 'decent' life, my time on earth came to the end. The first thing I remember is sitting on a bench in the waiting room of what I thought to be a court house. The doors opened and I was instructed to come in and have a seat by the defense table.

“As I looked around I saw the 'prosecutor.' He was a villainous looking man who snarled as he stared at me. He definitely was the most evil person I have ever seen. I sat down and looked to my left and there sat my Attorney, a kind and gentle-looking man whose appearance seemed so familiar to me, I felt I knew Him. The corner door flew open and there appeared the Judge in full flowing robes. He commanded an awesome presence as He moved across the room; I couldn't take my eyes off of Him. As He took His seat behind the bench, He said, 'Let us begin.'

“The prosecutor rose and said, 'My name is Satan and I am here to show you why this woman belongs in hell.' He proceeded to tell of lies that I told, things that I'd stolen, and in the past when I'd cheated others. Satan told of other horrible perversions that were once in my life and the more he spoke, the further down in my seat I sank. I was so embarrassed that I couldn't look at anyone, even my own Attorney, as the devil told of sins that even I had completely forgotten about.

“As upset as I was at Satan for telling all these things about me, I was equally upset with my Attorney who sat there silently not offering any form of defense at all. I knew I had been guilty of those things, but I had done some good in my life—couldn't that at least equal out part of the harm I'd done? Satan finished with a fury and said, 'This woman belongs in hell, she is guilty of all that I have charged her with, and there is not a person who can prove otherwise.'

“When it was His turn, my Attorney first asked if He might approach the bench. The Judge allowed this over the strong objection of Satan, and beckoned Him to come forward. As He got up and started walking, I was able to see Him in His full splendor and majesty. I realized why He seemed so familiar; this was Jesus representing me—my Lord and my Savior. He stopped at the bench and softly said to the Judge, 'Hi, Dad,' and then He turned to address the court. 'Satan was correct in saying that this woman had sinned, I won't deny any of these allegations. And, yes, the wages of sin is death, and this woman deserves to be punished.'

“Jesus took a deep breath and turned to His Father with outstretched arms and proclaimed, 'However, I died on the cross so that this person might have eternal life and she has accepted Me as her Savior, so she is Mine.' My Lord continued with, 'Her name is written in the Book of Life, and no one can snatch her from Me. Satan still does not understand yet. This woman is not to be given justice, but rather mercy.' As Jesus sat down, He quietly paused, looked at His Father and said, 'There is nothing else that needs to be done. I've done it all.'

“The Judge lifted His mighty hand and slammed the gavel down. The following words bellowed from His lips: 'This woman is free. The penalty for her has already been paid in full—case dismissed.' As my Lord led me away, I could hear Satan ranting and raving, 'I won't give up, I will win the next one.' I asked Jesus as He gave me my instructions where to go next, 'Have you ever lost a case?' Christ lovingly smiled and said, 'Everyone that has come to Me and asked Me to represent them has received the same verdict as you: Paid In Full!'"